THE MARITIME TRANSPORT ACT, NO.5 OF 2006

RULES FOR MARINE INQUIRY AND FORMAL INVESTIGATION
[Made under section 457(1)]

IN EXERCISE of the powers conferred upon me under section 457(1) of the Maritime Transport Act, No. 5 of 2006, I, DR. SIRA UBWA MWAMBOYA, Minister responsible for Maritime Transport Affairs, do hereby make Rules for Marine Inquiry and Formal Investigation as follows:

PART ONE
PRELIMINARY PROVISIONS

1. These Rules may be cited as Zanzibar Marine Inquiry and Formal Investigation Rules of 2018 and shall come into operation after being signed by the Minister and published in Official Gazette.

2. In these Rules, unless the context requires otherwise:

“accident” or “casualty” means as described in section 427 of the Act;

“Act” means the Maritime Transport Act, No. 5 of 2006;

“Authority” means the Zanzibar Maritime Authority;

“Board” means the Marine Board of Inquiry as may be established under rule 5(1) of these Rules;

“Chairman” means the Chairman of the Board of Inquiry as may be appointed under rule 5(1) of these Rules;

“formal investigation” has the means assigned to it under section 455 of the Act;

“Marine Inquiry” means an inquiry into a marine incident or casualty ordered by the Minister to ascertain the whole truth of the events leading up to and the causes of a marine incident or casualty in order to avoid future occurrences, and if so needed, to assign the fault or liability to a person to whom the fault or causes lies against;

“Minister” means the Minister responsible for maritime affairs.

3. These Rules shall apply to any Marine Inquiry and to any rehearing of such inquiry conducted in accordance with section 456 of the Act, with respect to casualties or accidents involving or occurring on board:

(a) any vessel registered in Tanzania Zanzibar; or
(b) any other vessel which the accident or casualty occurred within the Zanzibar territorial water.

4.- (1) The fundamental purpose of inquiry under these Rules is to conduct a detailed formal investigation of a marine incident or casualty in a public forum by means of reviewing of all relevant documentation and interviews of witnesses and taking oral testimony of witnesses under oath, with a view to ascertaining the underlying causes of the incident or casualty and preventing future occurrences.

(2) Whilst the purpose of inquiry is not to determine fault, it is to determine in a legal sense whether the law has been followed, and is to be distinguished from a prosecution although the Board may recommend to the appropriate authority a legal or administrative actions to be taken against any officer or seafarer.

PART TWO
BOARD OF INQUIRY AND THE CONDUCT OF FORMAL INVESTIGATION

5.- (1) Where a ship accident or casualty occurred, the Minister shall appoint a Judge of the High Court and not more than five persons to constitute a Board of Inquiry to inquire and investigate on such accident or casualty.
